WELCOME TO THE OLD SWAN

Built in 1840 and one of Harrogate's finest hotels, The Old Swan combines warm, traditional hospitality with contemporary comfort and extremely flexible meeting space, all set in acres of private gardens.

Located in the heart of this historic Spa town, easily accessible from the main motorway network and five minutes' walk from the Harrogate International Centre, the hotel was the famous retreat of crime queen Agatha Christie who famously 'disappeared' here in 1926. The hotel retains the elegance and splendour of a former era and is the ideal atmosphere to impress clients and conduct important business events.

Choose from a selection of 10 conference rooms with capacity for up to 450 people, including the Wedgwood Restaurant with its magnificent glass ceiling. Our Conference and Banqueting Team will be delighted to tailor-make an event to match your precise requirements.

If you are looking for that little bit extra, please call our Conference Team on 01423 500055 or drop us a line on conference.oldswan@classiclodges.co.uk and we look forward to welcoming you to the Hotel.
